

WOMEN'S EXIT STRATEGY FROM KAWIN ANUM CULTURE IN BANJAR TRIBE

Norma Yuni Kartika
Muhajir Darwin
Sukamdi
Aninda Astuti

PRELIMINARY

The height of early marriage in South Kalimantan related to the culture of marriage which has gone downhill with their society which dominated by Banjar tribe.

That marriage culture is “Kawin Anum” culture, which means in Indonesia is marriage in early age

In this research, the researcher focus on the area which is their kawin anum cases still high, not all women do kawin anum culture. Women who didn't do kawin anum culture, those who are researched in this study.

METHOD

sequential mixed methods, the first stage is using census method, and the second stage is qualitative method.

RESPONDENTS

In this respondents are 90 person with the criteria is those women who their first age marriage is between 16-30 years old

INFORMANTS

From 90 respondents, selected 14 people to be informants determined by purposive, with the criteria is the women who refused the urge to get married.

PRESSURE FOR WOMEN IN BANJAR TRIBE TO GET MARRIED SOON

REASON WHY PEOPLE PRESSURE TO GET MARRIED SOON

Afraid of being an old maid 39,39%

Peers are married 21,22%

Let someone take care 27,27 %

School is over/already working 12,12%

WOMEN RESPONS WHEN THEY ARE PRESSURE TO GET MARRIED SOON

Reject
42,42%

Agree
57,58%

WOMEN'S EXIT STRATEGY FROM EARLY MARRIAGE CULTURE IN BANJAR TRIBE

Women with their first age marriage 16-30 years old

- 85,72% they are working and 14,28% they continue their education

From 85,72% of women who working as an exit strategy to reject the pressure to get married by their parents or their family

- 66,67% of them are working as female workers in Arab Saudi in the period of time 2-12 years and 33,33% as working as stall guards outside the district.

In this study the exit strategy which is done by women to let them free from kawin anum culture and pressure of the parent or family to get married soon is by working and school. Time spent when they are working or going to school increase someone's first age marriage.

MATUR NUWUN